

Eleven times the parameters, the same failure

Left: the bigger model retains LESS, not more. Right: scores above 100% are the paradox - the model appears to improve on a flood type it never saw, while its water balance is wrong by two orders of magnitude.